IIM-A to host food and agri meet Amaethon from Jan 16

OUR BUREAU

Ahmedabad, January 13

The annual food and agribusiness summit of the Indian Institute of Management (IIM-A) will be held at its premises from January 16 to 18.

The three-day event, organised by IIM-A students, will bring together students, professors, industry veterans and policy makers to deliberate upon contemporary issues in the food and agribusiness sector. Amaethon attracts participants from management schools across India.

International participants

This year the event has gone international eliciting participation from Bangladesh, Bhutan, Nepal, The Philippines and Sri Lanka.

Professor Vasant Gandhi, Chairperson of the Centre for Management in Agriculture, IIM-A, will be the guide of the event.

The theme for this year is "Emerging Food and Agribusiness Opportunities in Developing Economies", which will be explored through competitions for students, panel discussions, workshops and sport activities, according to a press release issued on Tuesday.

A panel discussion will cover a wide gamut of issues in agribusiness and food sector, particularly in the context of developing economies.
